

PRIME MINISTER · PREMIER MINISTRE

February 15, 2015

Tiger Jeet Singh

Dear Mr. Singh:

I am honoured to present you with a Canadian Flag as part of the national celebration of the 50th anniversary of the National Flag of Canada.

This Flag Day tradition recognizes exceptional individuals like you, who have made outstanding contributions to our country. Our flag is a symbol of the values that unite us as Canadians. You have embodied the very best of these ideals and helped strengthen our National Flag's power as an emblem of peace, freedom, democracy and justice.

Our Canadian Flag is a source of pride, an echo of days past and a beacon for a future bright with promise. It is a testament to our country's vitality, ingenuity and countless achievements. This legacy was secured through the efforts of Canada's greatest natural resource – our dynamic, compassionate and courageous people. I thank you for your contributions to our national story as a world-renowned professional wrestler, dedicated community leader and outstanding ambassador for sport.

Once again, please accept this flag as a memento of this special anniversary and your unwavering dedication to making Canada the best country in the world.

Sincerely,

The Rt. Hon. Stephen Harper, P.C., M.P.
Prime Minister of Canada
